ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY,
OCTOBER 19, 2005

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, October 19. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and there then be a period of morning business for up to 60 minutes, with the first 30 minutes under the control of the Democratic leader or his designee and the final 30 minutes under the control of the Republican leader or his designee, provided that following morning business the Senate then resume consideration of H.R. 3058, the Transportation, Treasury Appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, the Senate continued to work on the Transportation—Treasury appropriations bill today. A number of amendments have indeed been filed. I encourage Senators who are serious about offering them to come down early in the day tomorrow to do just that. We hope to dispose of the pending Kennedy amendment and an alternative to that amendment at an early hour tomorrow.

The two managers were here all day and have been very patient. If Senators do not come down in a timely manner to offer their amendments, then I would encourage the managers to close out the bill to further amendment and proceed to final passage. We will finish this bill this week, either Wednesday or Thursday, or Friday, if necessary, and therefore votes can be expected each day until we finish this bill.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:16 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, October 19, 2005, at 9:30 a.m.
